Paths to Success

Inspiring Future Leaders

Challenges in Project Management

November 14–16, 2014

Berlin, Germany

Paths to Success is a seminar specifically designed for young men and women interested in future positions in international sport organisations.

The seminar aspires to help participants learning the skills and abilities required for a successful career as a potential leader in an international sport organisation, sport science or physical education institution. The focus of the seminar is project management, a highly important tool for successful leaders.

The programme will include training in project management skills, presentation skills, communication, negotiation and conflict resolution. A professional communication and leadership coach will lead through the seminar. In addition leaders from international sport organisations will serve as speakers and will provide first-hand examples and experiences on these topics.

Seminar language is English.
