

Participation, Recreation and Inclusion through Martial Arts Education (PRIME) Closing Symposium

Monday, December 3 – International Day of Persons with Disabilities

Institute of Technology Tralee; UNESCO Chair "Transforming the Lives of People with Disabilities, their Families and Communities, Through Physical Education, Sport, Recreation and Fitness", Co Kerry, Ireland

09:00h-10:30h	Welcome and "Setting the Scene"	Catherine Carty, IT Tralee
	Politics and Policies of Inclusion	Gudrun Doll-Tepper, Freie Universität Berlin
	Beyond Sport for All – Rethinking Inclusion in Sport	Richard Bailey, ICSSPE
10:30h-11:00h	Coffee break
11:00h-12:30h	"Setting the Scene"	Catherine Carty, IT Tralee
	Coaching and Inclusion	Ladislav Petrovic, ICCE
	Martial Arts and Inclusion	Ray Sweeney, IKKAIDO
	Introduction into PRIME, Coaching Guidelines, and Website	Katrin Koenen and Richard Bailey, ICSSPE
12:30h-13:30h	Lunch
13:30h-15:00h	"Setting the Scene"	Catherine Carty, IT Tralee
	Practical session and demonstrations in Gym	Lydia la Rivière Zijdel, Lydia Zijdel Foundation; Ken Black, University of Worcester and The Inclusion Club; and Dirk van der Merwe, IKKAIDO
15:00h-16:00h	Panel Discussion: What does the new framework mean for Martial Arts organisations?	Moderator Catherine Carty, IT Tralee; David Condie, International Taekwon-do Federation (ITF); Laura Rosella, WKSJ Wado Kai Shin Gi Tai Italia; Dirk Dohm, Hayashi Karatecente e.V.; Gudrun Doll-Tepper, Freie Universität Berlin; Ladislav Petrovic, ICCE; Ray Sweeney, IKKAIDO
	Closing words	Katrin Koenen, ICSSPE