

Women & Girls in Sport

Research to Action

18th World Congress

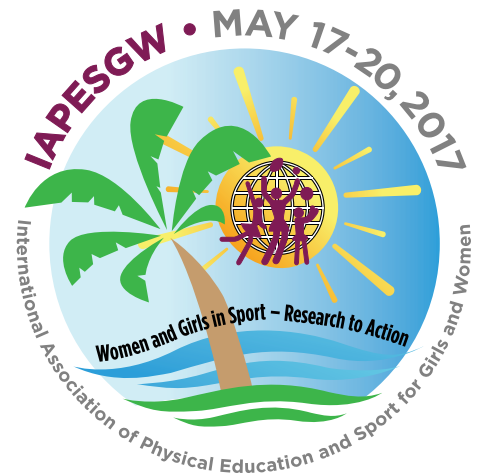

Miami, FL USA

Hosted by

Barry University

Wednesday, May 17 - Saturday, May 20

barry.edu/IAPESGW

Experience the Future of Women & Girls in Sport

Be a part of sharing, learning, discussing and creating new possibilities for the benefit of girls and women in sport. Learn about the latest research surrounding sport, movement and fitness. Meet international world leaders passionate about these topics and research the impact of movement on wellness and health.

Symposiums and Workshops

Participate in symposiums and workshops lead by expert researchers.

Conference Schedule

IAPESGW 18th Conference officially begins on Wednesday, May 17 at 9AM with the Keynote Speaker, Ana Maria Miragaya from Latin America and continues through the closing ceremony on Saturday evening, May 20th.

About the Speakers

Authors and experts from United States, Australia, Kenya and Brazil will speak about the importance and impact of sport on women and girls in today's society.

Lodging

For your convenience, Barry University has on-site campus housing available in a residence hall. There is also an off-campus option with greatly discounted room rates at a nearby hotel.

Conference Pricing

4-day full conference price is only $400. This includes 6 meals and full access to every workshop, symposium, celebration event, and speaker series.

[Request
More Information](#)

Learn More
Register Now