

The Stellenbosch University's Department of Sport Science and the Robben Island Museum (RIM) invites you to the 3rd South African Sport History Conference to be held from 10 to 12 October 2019 under the theme: Sport and the Struggle for Social Justice

The year 2019 marks 20 years since Robben Island (RI) was declared a World Heritage site by the UNESCO. To reflect critically on this, the Robben Island Museum (RIM) and Stellenbosch University Sport Science Department, offer activists, academics and members from civil society an opportunity to participate in the above mentioned conference. Delegates are invited to be part of a unique RI experience that includes a one day tour of the Island, with presentations at historical sites on the Island. Prof Andre Odendaal, Honorary professor of History and Heritage Studies at the University of the Western Cape and founding director of the RIM will deliver the keynote address. Delegates are invited to submit abstracts of 300-400 words by 1 April 2019 on related themes below:

Robben Island sport history
Sport and Resistance
Sport heritage
Local sport histories

Dates: 10 October 2019: Robben Island experience

11 October 2019: Conference

12 October 2019: Conference

Venue: Robben Island Museum

Abstracts submitted to:	Mrs. M. Botha at mimibotha@sun.ac.za
Robben Island Accommodation enquiries:	Ms V. Mitchell at VanessaD@robben-island.org.za
Conference payment:	Mrs. Carien Uys at carienjvr@sun.ac.za
Banking details:	Please contact Mrs Uys at +27 021 8084723

Presenters will be informed of their abstract acceptance by 15 April 2019

Cost: R 1500	North American and European Union countries
R 1000	Rest of world
R 400	Registered Students at accredited institutions