Event Organizers Sector Supplement - Quick Reference

SUSTAINABILITY CONTEXT

The reporting organization should identify its stakeholders and explain in the report how it has responded to their reasonable expectations and interests.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

- Include an explanation of how the organization has engaged and recognized in the report the interests of its key stakeholders.
- Identify the scope and basis of the report, explain the scope, boundary, or measurement methods that diverge from, the GRI Indicator Protocols.
- Include frequency with which the highest governance body or its own performance is addressed, with respect to economic, environmental, and social performance.

COMMITMENTS TO EXTERNAL INITIATIVES

- Include a description of whether the organization has committed or will commit to any external reporting principles.

---

Strategic Disclosures: Profile

Strategy and Analysis

1.2 SUSTAINABILITY CONTEXT

- The reporting organization should identify its stakeholders and explain in the report how it has responded to their reasonable expectations and interests.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

- Include an explanation of how the organization has engaged and recognized in the report the interests of its key stakeholders.
- Identify the scope and basis of the report, explain the scope, boundary, or measurement methods that diverge from, the GRI Indicator Protocols.
- Include frequency with which the highest governance body or its own performance is addressed, with respect to economic, environmental, and social performance.

COMMITMENTS TO EXTERNAL INITIATIVES

- Include a description of whether the organization has committed or will commit to any external reporting principles.

---

Event Organizers Sector Supplement - Quick Reference Guide

SUSTAINABILITY CONTEXT

The reporting organization should identify its stakeholders and explain in the report how it has responded to their reasonable expectations and interests.

STAKEHOLDER ENGAGEMENT

- Include an explanation of how the organization has engaged and recognized in the report the interests of its key stakeholders.
- Identify the scope and basis of the report, explain the scope, boundary, or measurement methods that diverge from, the GRI Indicator Protocols.
- Include frequency with which the highest governance body or its own performance is addressed, with respect to economic, environmental, and social performance.

COMMITMENTS TO EXTERNAL INITIATIVES

- Include a description of whether the organization has committed or will commit to any external reporting principles.
Economic Performance

- Total number and volume of significant spills.
- Total weight of waste by type and disposal method, weight.
- Number of IUCN Red List species and national habitats protected or restored.
- Biodiversity value outside protected areas.
- Percentage and total volume of water recycled and Total water withdrawal by source, and reductions achieved.
- Energy saved due to conservation and efficiency improvements.
- Percentage of materials used that are recycled input Materials used by weight or volume.
- Understanding and describing significant indirect management hired from the local community at Procedures for local hiring and proportion of senior operation.
- Climate change and other sustainability issues.

Labor Practices and Decent Work

- Employment
  - Ratio of basic salary and renumeration of women to gender, and by employee category.
  - Turnover by age group, gender, and region.
  - Composition of governance bodies and breakdown regular performance and career development learning that support the continued employability Programs for skills management and lifelong training.

- Training and Education
  - Average hours of training per year per employee.
  - Programs for skill management and lifelong education.

- Labor Relations
  - Unions, associations, collective agreements.

- Human Rights
  - Involuntary and compulsory labor, and measures to contribute to the effective enforcement of human rights.
  - Discrimination at work.
  - Individual and group access to justice.

Environment

- Water sources significantly affected by withdrawal events,
- Water conservation and reducing the amount of water withdrawn.

- Energy
  - Carbon dioxide emissions per unit of product or service.
  - Energy consumption per unit of product or service.
  - Percentage of energy use from renewable sources.

- Waste
  - Total weight of hazardous waste, and total weight of non-hazardous waste.
  - Total weight of packaging and non-packaging waste.

- Biodiversity
  - Percentage of land in protected areas.
  - Number of species of interest.

Labor Practices and Decent Work

- Employment
  - Ratio of basic salary and renumeration of women to gender, and by employee category.
  - Turnover by age group, gender, and region.
  - Composition of governance bodies and breakdown regular performance and career development learning that support the continued employability Programs for skills management and lifelong training.

- Training and Education
  - Average hours of training per year per employee.
  - Programs for skill management and lifelong education.

- Labor Relations
  - Unions, associations, collective agreements.

- Human Rights
  - Involuntary and compulsory labor, and measures to contribute to the effective enforcement of human rights.
  - Discrimination at work.
  - Individual and group access to justice.