MINEPS V / International Charter & Sport Integrity

The Declaration of Berlin expresses an action-oriented global consensus amongst sport policy makers concerning the importance of threats to sport integrity, notably match-fixing, and the required countermeasures

=> What ? How?

The International Charter, as a common vision amongst diverse stakeholders of principles and values that must guide sport policy and programmes, stresses the reasons and purposes of protecting sport integrity

=> Why ? How?

MINEPS VI: Focus on action

Focus on the implementation and its monitoring of

- the Declaration of Berlin (2013)
- the revised International Charter of Physical Education and Sport (2015)

CIGEPS decides that MINEPS VI should focus on follow-up

UNESCO General Conference supports the development of a common framework for the follow-up to the two documents

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and
Cultural Organization

Follow-up Framework

- Tool to assess progress with respect to agreed principles, commitments and recommendations
- Promote concrete solutions
- Identify gaps
- Foster international convergence in policy implementation and its monitoring
- Reference for national policy development

Need to

- reflect two distinct texts
- integrate the SDGs
- reflect UN Resolutions

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and
Cultural Organization

Follow-up Framework
