

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

UNESCO Chair "Transforming the Lives of People with Disabilities, their Families and Communities, Through Physical Education, Sport, Recreation and Fitness"

Some preliminary results of the CIA survey, 12.01.2017 from those who responded in English.

- Most of the respondents are non-profit organizations. (80-100%)
- Total of respondents: n=189, CIA members: n=153, non-CIA member: n=36
- The main focus areas of most organizations that responded are: advocacy, training, education, research.
- Question: Does your country/government have an action plan for Disability Sport/Inclusive Sport?
Answers: ~50% yes, ~28% don't know, ~21% no
- Some policies are in place but often the implementation lacks due to different reasons. More in-depth analysis needed here
- Lack of disability sport specific modules in university programs
- Need for training, toolkits, guidelines to further support development
- High interest to collaborate with the UNESCO Chair
- About 70% of the organizations offer inclusive PE/physical activity/sport/fitness projects (relating to Art. 1 of Int. Charter)
- More than 50% of the respondents see significant benefits of sport, PE, physical activity for individuals, communities and society at large (relating to Art. 2 of Int. Charter)
- Over 80 % indicate that their organization's policy/plans incorporate inclusion/sport for all (relating to Art. 3 of Int. Charter)
- Over 70% encourage lifelong participation (relating to Art.4 of Int. Charter)
- 50-70% describe their programs as holistically sustainable (relating to Art. 5 of Int. Charter)
- About 80% do M&E (relating to Art. 6 of Int. Charter)
- Mixed qualifications of staff (relating to Art. 7 of Int. Charter)
- More in-depth analysis necessary (relating to Art. 8 of Int. Charter)
- More in-depth analysis necessary (relating to Art. 9 of Int. Charter)
- More than 50% claim to have a health and safety protocol to roll out and delivery of plan and programs (relating to Art. 10 of Int. Charter)
- Screening of personal (safety) 50/50 (relating to Art. 10 of Int. Charter)
- Almost 50% agree that PE, PA, sport can play an important role in the realization of development, peace and post-conflict and post-disaster objectives (relating to Art. 11 of Int. Charter)
- More than 50% agree that international co-operation is a prerequisite for enhancing the scope and impact of physical education, physical activity and sport (relating to Art. 12 of Int. Charter)